

Bulk Material Handling Sinter Plant

This system controls a sinter processing plant, including bag houses, pump house, limestone silos, and waste treatment system.

The system utilized Allen-Bradley PLC-5/80's with many remote I/O chassis, and a VAX top-level computer. All control systems designed and implemented by FSI.

The picture shows the system wired to test panels for a complete functional system test.

